Application for funding from Lions Cancer Research Fund of Western Sweden 2026.

You can complete this form on your computer and then save it. You also can make additions and amendments after you have saved the form. When you have finalized the application, save the form with your name in the document name and send it as an attachment to an e-mail to forskningsanslag@lionscancerfond.se as described in the guidelines.

NOTE the deadline February 28, 2026.

Applicant

Surname First name

Employed by:

The administration department/cost center

Research leader/supervisor (if applicable)

Name and Title

Phone no E-mail address

The application relates to:

Project title, maximum 20 words

Describe the purpose/objective of the project with SIMPLE words in Swedish, Lions Cancer Research Fund of Western Sweden can use for information purposes.

Briefly describe the research group to which the applicant belongs and how the research group is funded:

Describe the research project as follows:

- Aim (purpose, theory and uniqueness)
- Methodology, analysis and implementation (the scientific method, and project plan)
- The applicant's documented experience (Please attach a current list of publications and CV as separate documents)
- and, where applicable:
- The purpose of the study trip and itinerary
- Research equipment and how it will be used
- Information about an Ethical Review (if applicable)

Project description.

Project description cont’d.

Financial summary

SEK

Salary costs, including social security charges.
Please specify for whom the salary is intended.

Material costs (including VAT), specify

Travel expenses

Other expenses, specify

Administrative costs _____

Total costs

Timetable for the project.

If the application relates to a partial funding of a project, describe how the supplementing funding will be acquired. Has any funding for the project that this application relates to already been granted from other sources?